

FINAL ACTION NOT TAKEN ON PEACE TREATY

Advices From Moscow Say
Russia Has Not Yet Been Committed

SOCIAL REVOLUTIONISTS REFUSE TO RATIFY TERMS

Allies Have Been Successful In Operations On Army Fronts

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches)
Final action on the German peace treaty apparently has not yet been taken by the all-Russian congress of Soviets at Moscow. While dispatches, dated Thursday, from Petrograd, reported the congress has decided overwhelmingly to ratify the treaty, advices from Moscow, Friday, say that there has been a division in the council of people's commissaries and indicate that Russia has not yet been committed to the German terms.

Bolshevik approval of the treaty seemingly has aroused the members of the government belonging to the party of the social revolutionists of the Left, who refuse to ratify it. The social revolutionists are said to have resolved to resign from the council should the congress approve the treaty. This probably means that decisive action has not yet been taken by the congress as a whole.

An Associated Press dispatch from Moscow, dated Thursday, says the Bolsheviks at a party caucus voted to approve the course of the Lenin government in agreeing to the German terms which, nevertheless, they condemned. The Bolsheviks said it was necessary to organize for the defense of the nation against their invaders.

Several ministers in the Lenin government are members of the social revolutionist party of the Left. They were admitted late last December when the Bolsheviks were threatened with loss of power unless the revolutionists were recognized. The social revolutionists of the Right have been opposed continually to the Bolsheviks, who broke up the constituent assembly when the party of the Right elected the chairman.

French troops in the Champagne have answered the strong German artillery fire there by an attack in which trench elements west of Mont Camille, taken by the Germans on March 1, were recaptured. In the successful operation, the French took 42 prisoners, including four officers. Further east the French penetrated the German lines at Mont Blond and took prisoners.

On the British front the fighting activity continues lively, especially between Ypres and Arras. Near Lens, north of Arras, Canadian troops were successful in a raid on German trenches in which prisoners were taken northeast and south of Ypres, Messines and Lens. The German artillery fire has been intense. There has been no change in the American sectors near Toul and east of Lunenburg.

American and British ministers at Stockholm have sent a demand to General Mannerheim, commander of the Finnish government forces, for the release of one American and 16 Britishers taken from the Aland Islands by the Germans to Danzig, Germany. The Aland Islands are being used as a base by the Germans who are aiding General Mannerheim in putting down the Finnish rebels.

A Tokyo newspaper reports that 170 Japanese have been murdered by Bolsheviks at Blagovieshtchensk, capital of Amur province, and 500 miles north of Harbin, Manchuria. Another report is that only three Japanese were killed and seven wounded.

Moscow dispatches filed on Thursday night said President Wilson's message of sympathy to the Russian people was read to the all-Russian congress of Soviets at its opening session that night, that it was received with applause and that a resolution of appreciation to the American people was adopted.

The advices show that more than 1100 delegates are attending the congress. Of these more than 700 are Bolsheviks, who in their caucus, overwhelmingly declared in favor of ratification of the peace treaty.

The Italian official statement contradicts the claim of the Austrians that they obtained substantial advantage through their recent setting off of a large mine in the important Monte Pasubio area, on the Italian mountain front. The Italian positions were not damaged by the explosion, the Rome war office announced.

Berlin reports somewhat notable activity by the British last night along the front between Arras and St. Quentin. The establishment of a new German army group on the western front, commanded by General von Gallwitz, is indicated in the army headquarters statement. Apparently General von Gallwitz's troops are stationed between those commanded by the German crown prince and Duke Albrecht, and possibly are those facing the Americans northwest of Toul and east of Lunenburg.

FORMER CHAIRMAN OF TARIFF BOARD TAKEN PRISONER

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 16.—A report on the arrest on the Aland Islands of Henry Crosby Emery, a former chairman of the tariff board, said to have been captured with a party of British by the Germans and taken to Germany, was made to the state department today by Minister Morris at Stockholm.

News dispatches have said the American and British legations at Stockholm had started representatives for Finland carrying a formal protest against the arrests to General Mannerheim, commander of the Finnish government forces. Mr. Emery, Mr. Morris' dispatch disclosed, holds a major's commission in the reserve in the American army. He was sent to Russia, it was said, by the Guaranty Trust company of New York.

Minister Morris said nothing as to the final disposition of the prisoners, although press dispatches said they were taken to Danzig, Germany, aboard a German steamer. All women members of the party and men more than fifty years old were permitted to proceed to Sweden. The minister said the party was captured after it left Abo by sleigh and that they were taken to Ekero.

CONSIDERING LIMITATION OF WHEAT SUPPLY

Must Tide Over American People and Allies Until Next Harvest

OFFICIALS FEAR BALKY PRACTICE OF HOARDING

Allies Have Been Promised
90,000,000 Bushels Grain
In Six Months

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 16.—Further limitation of wheat consumption in the U. S. is under consideration by the food administration to make sure that the visible supply will tide over the American people and their allies until the next harvest.

Plans for accomplishing the additional saving are being worked out carefully and the only bar to success feared by officials is the senseless hoarding which may be practiced by unthinking and selfish people.

The seriousness of the wheat situation was shown today by a department of agriculture report on the supply in country elevators and mills which was supplemented by a frank admission at the food administration existing flour stocks are only 30 per cent of the normal quantity needed until July 1. Food administration officials thought the department's estimate of 180,000,000 bushels of wheat in elevators and on farms March 1 was optimistic and said their best information was that 125,000,000 bushels was the greatest amount that could be expected.

The allies have been promised 90,000,000 bushels of grain between January 1 and July 1. There is no intention of failing to carry out this program, which is regarded as the most important duty now confronting the American people. Owing to shortage of transportation the greater part of the export program remains to be carried out and the wheat must be obtained from the scant supply in this country by curtailment of individual consumption. The only alternative to failure in the opinion of food administration officials is sacrifice by individuals.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 16.—Wheat holdings at country mills and elevators on March 1 were estimated today by the department of agriculture at 68,972,000 bushels. That is about 20,000,000 bushels less than was held March 1 last year and 86,000,000 bushels less than in 1916.

The decline in grain stocks presents one of the most serious problems facing the food administration, which is considering new methods of conservation to protect this country and the allies against an actual wheat famine. Whatever is done to save the situation will have to be done by the public, in the opinion of officials, as the savings will have to come out of American allowance.

"Hoarding is the danger most feared by food administration experts who believe the available supply will tide over the shortage if wisely distributed. America's export program calls for shipment of ninety million bushels of wheat to the allies between January and June 1, when the new crop becomes available.

FAIR WEATHER IS BUREAU PREDICTION

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION BY RUSSIAN CONGRESS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Moscow, Thursday, March 14.—President Wilson's message of sympathy to the Russian people was received with marked applause when it was read tonight at the opening session of the All-Russian Congress of Soviets. The congress immediately adopted a resolution of appreciation.

The resolution reads:
"The All-Russian Congress of Soviets expresses its appreciation to the American people and first of all the laboring and exploited classes in the United States for the message sent by President Wilson to the Congress of Soviets. In this time when the Russian socialist Soviet republic is living through most difficult trials."

"The Russian republic uses the occasion of the message from President Wilson to express to all peoples who are dying and suffering from the horrors of this imperialistic war, its warm sympathy and firm conviction that the happy time is near when the laboring masses in all Bourgeois countries will throw off the capitalist yoke and establish a socialist state of society, which is the only one capable of assuring a permanent and just peace as well as the culture and well being of all who toil."

The congress is being held in the banquet hall of the Nobility club, where former emperors were entertained. Soldiers, sailors and peasants formed a majority of the 1,164 delegates present. The Bolshevik members number 732.

Premier Lenin made the principal speech and received a great ovation. He emphasized the necessity of signing a peace treaty.

Strong forces of guards were about the hall but there were no attempts at disorder. Bolshevik control apparently is absolute.

USED A RAZOR AND WIELDER LOSES A FOOT

Retribution came swift and sure to Dan Humphries, colored, last night as he was trying to make his get away after slashing the face of James Stewart, also colored. Humphries boarded a B. and O. freight train to beat his way out of town and just as the train was crossing the Licking river bridge he had a part of the left foot cut off.

Four southern darkies engaged in a heated argument at 177 Monroe street last night, and in the melee Humphries, who came from Friar Point, Miss., wielded a razor, laying open the face of Stewart, who hailed from Blount Springs, Ala. The blade caught Stewart across the bridge of the nose down across the upper lip to the chin.

He did not hesitate long after the deed, but boarded an east bound freight train. Just as the train crossed the river east of the city, Humphries caught his foot in a switch and had part of it taken off. He was taken to the B. & O. station where Bazel's ambulance was called and he was removed to the Sanitarium.

Stewart and one of the witnesses of the fight, King Solomon, of Selma, Ala., called at police headquarters this morning, but in view of the punishment already meted out to Humphries were not inclined to prosecute him.

DAYLIGHT SAVING BILL IN SENATE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 16.—Daylight saving now awaits only President Wilson's approval. House amendments to the daylight saving bill, requiring all timepieces to be advanced one hour, beginning the last Sunday in March, were accepted today by the senate.

The change in time will remain in effect until the last Sunday in October when clocks will be turned back again.

Millions of dollars annually will be saved to the country by putting the plan into effect, according to its supporters. Approximately $40,000,000 alone will be saved in the nation's lighting bill, it is declared. In urging acceptance of the house amendments in the senate today, Senator Calder, the bill's author, declared the only change the bill would make in economic conditions would be to give everyone an extra hour of daylight each day. The bill, he said, will prove to be one of the most important conservation measures ever enacted by congress.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 16.—The daylight saving bill, passed by the house yesterday in slightly different form than approved by the senate last June, went back to the senate today where the measure's supporters set about to obtain early agreement.

Under the senate bill the nation's clocks would be set forward an hour on the last Sunday in April, and turned back again on the last Sunday in September, while the house bill would change the clocks on the last Sunday in March and the last Sunday in October.

Adoption of the plan is particularly urged by the national war garden commission for its value to war gardeners. The commission, in a statement, estimating the number of war gardeners at 3,000,000, says:

"In seven months of 26 days each there will be an addition of 546,000,000 hours to the working time of city, town and village gardeners. This is equivalent to 68,250,000 days of eight hours each of 186,936 years."

IS VOTED MOTHER OF THE REGIMENT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Boston, March 16.—Mrs. Alice S. Weeks of Boston, has been officially voted "mother of the regiment," by the Foreign Legion of the French army, after more than two years of devotion to the interests of American boys in that famous fighting organization. It was announced today.

Mrs. Weeks began her "mothering" of the Americans fighting on French soil after the death of her son, Kenneth Weeks, who joined the Foreign Legion early in the war. In 1915 she followed him to Paris, but he was killed before he could obtain a furlough to visit her.

At her Paris home, Mrs. Weeks welcomed many of her son's friends in the legion, the aviation corps, and the ambulance service.

The number who looked to her for sympathy and care grew until it was necessary to form the society known as the "Home Service for American Soldiers Abroad," with Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Dr. Morton Prince and Major Henry L. Higgins among its directors.

SUB BOATS CAPTURE SWEDISH TRAWLERS

CAMP SHERMAN SELECTS AT WORK TRENCH DIGGING

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., March 16.—One of the most extensive trench areas in the United States is to be developed by the 33rd division selects during the spring and summer months here. Seven miles of trenches are in process of construction or are planned. In addition to the several lines of trenches bomb-proof shelters will be constructed, several of them to be of sufficient size to accommodate 200 men at one time.

Fire support and reserve trenches are being dug by the selects. At least one organization is assigned to trench duty daily. Due to the combined effects of the severe winter weather and the undermining action of the heavy spring rains, 20 per cent of the work accomplished last fall and during the early weeks of the winter will have to be repeated. The parapets of many of the trenches have fallen in, according to officers who have inspected the trench system recently.

Construction of the trenches is under the general supervision of the 308th engineers. The huge dugouts planned will be from 25 to 30 feet under ground and would be sufficiently protected to withstand almost any sort of a bombardment, engineers officers say. Dressing stations for the wounded, latrines and dump trenches in which supplies would be stored, will be some of the auxiliary earthworks planned.

Battalion occupation of the trench area is planned. Approximately a thousand selects at one time will be taken to the trenches when they are completed, to be given actual experience in living in the trenches and to work out tactical problems. The two infantry companies of the training school are scheduled to occupy the trenches in about 10 days for a period of over a week. Hopes are being entertained to have a military aviator detailed here to co-operate with the candidates for the purpose of working out practical military attack and defense problems.

Not only are all the trenches to be occupied by divisional troops provided, but an enemy trench facing the American line trench will be an objective for the selects to attack. It is possible that wire entanglements and obstructions of a similar nature will be erected to simulate conditions of European warfare as closely as possible.

Vacancies which have occurred in the different commissioned grades here since the promotion of officers announced in January, are to be filled by definite assignment of surplus officers already serving with the division, according to an announcement today. It was stated at division headquarters that the number of vacancies to be filled is comparatively small, some of the changes having been made necessary by the changes of the tables of the organization about a month ago under which there is an additional captain for each regiment.

Officers already attached to regiments may be definitely assigned to them, or officers may be taken from the school of the line here and attached to organizations for permanent duty. It was stated. No further promotions except in one or two individual cases are contemplated at this time, it was said.

Scarlet fever cases were responsible for five organizations being added to the list of quarantined units today, while two others were released. The new organizations are: Battery E, 323rd light field artillery; Company H, 332nd infantry; Company B, 331st infantry; Battery D, 324th heavy field artillery, and Company E, 308th ammunition train.

GERMAN LINES BATTERED IN VICINITY OF TOUL

Pershing's Men Make Permanent Advance Occupying Evacuated Trenches

(Associated Press Telegram)
With the American Army in France, Wednesday, March 13.—Active artillery firing continues on the American sectors northwest of Toul and east of Lunenburg. A considerable number of gas shells have been falling intermittently on the Toul front.

An enemy patrol was discovered this morning in the American entanglements northwest of Toul. The Germans were driven off with rifle fire and a number of them were hit. One body was left hanging in the wire.

American snipers have been very busy on both sectors. East of Lunenburg six enemy snipers were silenced by the Americans. On the Toul front during last night and today considerable sniping and even single shots heard within the enemy lines. Several times the Germans stuck their heads over the parapets, to see what the Americans were doing. Each time a bullet from an American rifle went in the direction of the head, after several of their number were hit, the Germans stopped looking.

At one place last night an American sentry saw a figure slinking through the darkness. The man halted when challenged and was found to be a German prisoner who had escaped and was trying to get back to his own lines. The German was turned over to the French authorities.

The place where the German was captured was not far from where an American one-pounder was busy firing on a large number of enemy snipers, who had been annoying our lines. After several shots, the Germans withdrew.

The American artillery in the Toul sector again battered the German lines and observation posts, and caused an explosion, probably of an ammunition dump. Hundreds of big shells were sent into three German trenches where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today but many airplanes were up.

It is believed certain that the Germans have permanently abandoned trenches to the northeast of Badonvillers, near Lunenburg. The enemy is now using quantities of gas shells, some of 12 inches, at our positions there.

An Associated Press dispatch from the American front in France Thursday reported that General Pershing's men had made their first permanent advance in occupying evacuated trenches northeast of Badonvillers and consolidated them with their own lines. German attempts to select the Americans were repulsed.

HORSES CONSIGNED TO THE GOVERNMENT HAD BEEN POISONED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cincinnati, March 16.—With 125 horses dead and 115 others that will probably die the investigation into the alleged poisoning of a large consignment of government horses here yesterday continued with unabated zeal today.

The analysis of the stomachs of the dead horses today verified the first analysis yesterday which showed that the horses had eaten out of a large canister in some form. It is believed that it was given through the medium of drinking water, and the fact that the horses had been on the way from Camp Grant for a long number of hours without food or water strengthens the belief that the poison was administered here.

WILL HOLD BANQUET AT CHILLICOTHE FOR ALL LICKING SEEECTS

Conditions at camp now permitting the big banquet which has been planned for the Newark and Licking county boys at Camp Sherman has been arranged for Wednesday evening of next week.

Enmet McDaniels was in Chillicothe yesterday completing the details for the big event and was shown over the camp by Major C. W. Miller and later talked with Captain Post of Battery B. and Mess Sergeant Ralph Priest.

The officers have consented to dismiss the men on Wednesday afternoon until 12 o'clock Wednesday night. The big banquet will be served at 6 o'clock in the Elk club rooms in Chillicothe which have a large seating capacity. A special program of music and speakers has been arranged and if possible a cabaret entertainment will be provided.

Mr. McDaniels accompanied by a large corps of chefs and waiters will leave early Wednesday morning for Chillicothe and he will personally supervise the banquet. A large delegation from Newark and the county, including the members of the committee which originated the idea of the banquet, will also go to Chillicothe to attend the festivities.

As there are a number of the Newark and county men who have been assigned to scattered organizations aside from those having the large percentage of local boys, it is desired that their relatives and friends in Newark notify them of the banquet, and the date, so that they can make arrangements to attend.

In one place there are 50 large government war trucks and it will be some time before the cars can get out. Many of the drivers left their cars in care of farmers and village residents until the roads can be repaired.

Sorrow.
It would be a poor result of all our anguish and our wrestling if we won nothing but our old selves at the end of it, if we could return to the same blind loves, the same self-confident blame, the same light thoughts of human suffering, the same frivolous gossip over blighted human lives, the same feeble sense of the unknown world towards which we have sent forth irrepressible cries in our loneliness. Let us rather be thankful that our sorrow lives in us as an indelible force, only changing its form as forces do, and passing from pain into sympathy—the one poor word which includes all our best in life and our best love.—George Eliot.

Many a man's patriotism gets no farther than putting in a good word when the hat is passed.

Fiske's High Opinion of Huxley.

In the biography of John Fiske it is related that on his visits to England he formed a hearty friendship with Huxley. In one of his letters home he thus wrote of him: "I am quite wild over Huxley. He is as handsome as an Apollo. His photograph doesn't begin to do him justice. I never before saw such magnificent eyes. They are black, and his face expresses an eager, burning intensity and there is none of that self-satisfied smirk that has crept into his picture. He seems earnest—immensely in earnest—and thoroughly frank and cordial and modest. And, by Jove, what a pleasure it is to meet such a clean-cut mind! It is like Saladin's sword, which cut through the cushion. . . . After tea, Huxley and I retired to his study, which is the coziest I have seen in England, and had a smoke and the very best talk I have ever had. Words can't describe what a glorious fellow he is."

Martello Tower.

A Martello tower is a round structure, usually of stone, about 40 feet in height, with walls of great thickness and strength, and situated on a beach or on the bank of a river. It is so called from the Italian towers built as a protection against the pirates who infested the Mediterranean in ancient times and during the middle ages.

Warning of the approach of pirates or other enemies was given by the garrison on guard in the tower by striking a bell with a hammer, or Martello. Hence the towers were called in Italian "Torri da Martello." Several very fine Martello towers formed part of the old stone fortifications of Kingston, Ont., of which Fort Henry was the principal work. Of course, the stone works are now obsolete as fortifications against modern guns, but several of the towers, both there and at Quebec, have been preserved and put in a state of repair. They add a picturesque element to Kingston's beautiful lake front.

Will Clear Mountain Slide.

By combining an endless conveyor with a powerful rotary fan, an inventor claims to have constructed a railroad snowplow that will clear a track of snow of almost any depth, or a mixture of snow and debris, such as results from a slide on a mountain, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The machine is built on trucks, is operated by its own engine, and is propelled from behind by a locomotive. The endless conveyor is mounted slantingly at the front, with the forward end close to the ground. As the plow advances, the nose is driven into the snow, which is steadily cut away by the conveyor and discharged into a hood containing the fan. The fan throws the snow either side of the track, its delivery being regulated by the position of the sides of the hood, which are adjustable.

Doing Your Best Wins.

A good many men who have less actual knowledge and ability than their associates make more rapid strides toward fame and fortune simply because they are bound to get along and make something of themselves. Don't look at a man who has been very successful and then console yourself with the thought that his opportunities have been vastly greater than yours. They may have been and they may not have been. It is, of course, true that opportunity is not always equally apportioned among men, but lack of success is more often due to lack of effort, or to a feeling of contentment with small accomplishment. The man who puts the best there is in him into his business need never worry about the little lills that come rolling in around the first of each month.

More Building Now Per Dollar WHY WAIT?

¶ The rise in prices of building materials has amounted to but from 15% to 30% all told. The rise in prices of farm and many manufactured products has amounted to from 100% to 300%. Wages are also higher.

¶ Therefore your products with which you do your trading will buy more than twice as much building now as at any other time. ¶ Think of it! With the same quantity of wheat, oats, corn, etc., as before the war, one can build two houses, two barns, two garages, two anything. Building never was, and never will be cheaper.

¶ Prices will not drop for years. Certainly not during the war. And they have remained up after every war in modern history. You would be the last to want them to drop. But the chances are building materials will rise. Reconstruction work, resuming industries forced out by war and big building demand will do it.

Don't Get Caught!

¶ These are prosperous times—billions being spent—with greater times coming. Buildings needed now will produce a rental proportionate to their cost. Rest assured of this!

¶ Is it not logical then to BUILD NOW when you have the money—when your products will buy more than ever before—when your prosperity and your country depends on your keeping money in circulation, business going?

¶ We are confident you will answer YES. Place your order and build now.

More Building Now Per Dollar! WHY WAIT?

¶ You live but once. Time is fleeting. There is nothing which makes more for self-respect, honest pride, and all around contentment, than a modern, comfortable home! Be Happy Now! It is your right! You can afford it! Don't wait until it is too late. You should build now!

ST. PATRICK.

ST. PATRICK.

Among the ancient heroes of the church none enjoys a more genuine popularity than St. Patrick. Those who wear the green on his own day include many others than those that originated on the "ould sod." St. Patrick's day means something more than the memory of any one man. It is a sentimental celebration for a powerful race strain in our American melting pot.

The old saint himself was typical of the race that acknowledges him as patron saint. He was an aggressive old churchman. When he came over Ireland was heathen, and he left it Christian, founding 365 churches and baptizing 12,000 people with his own hands.

That indicates a man of tireless energy. This quality has always been an Irish characteristic. Very few loafers are found among this people. The first pioneers in their migration to America lived the most humble life. Wearing picturesque red shirts, they built our railroads while the old-time Americans looked on rather superciliously.

In spite of all difficulties and much toilsome labor, the Irish people for many years came over in great numbers. Their little homes were usually surrounded by flowers, the sign of an imaginative and hopeful race. By and by the new generation began to appear in our schools and in our business and politics. Always they were a force to be reckoned with. They have been hard fighters, fearing not hard knocks, but loyal friends and with generous hearts.

The good humor with which they have met the toil and conflict of life is a splendid gift of temperament. Their tireless energy has contributed a big share to our industrial progress. So hats off to St. Patrick and the friendly followers who wear the green!

LANDLORD'S TROUBLES.

The Advocate quoted a few days ago a letter written to a newspaper exchange in another town, by a workingman who could find no decent place in that town to live in. A man who owns some real estate and had experience in renting houses, writes to say that there is another side of this story that should be heard and considered.

He says that as a whole owners of dwellings would be glad to keep their buildings in good condition. But the irresponsibility and carelessness of many tenants is such that it is very costly to keep rented houses looking well or even sanitary.

Many people, if they do not own the home they live in, are utterly indifferent to its condition. They bang against the woodwork, soil the painted paper, and scratch the floors, even if these are made of solid hardwood and are expensive to renew. Everything in the house suffers from their negligence. When a new tenant comes in, either a big

REFUGEE GARMENTS WANTED

The people of Belgium have felt the horrors of this war more than any other nation. They offered their living bodies that Democracy might be made safe in the world. They fought our battles. The least we can do is to take care of those who have lost their homes, their clothes and their money.

The Red Cross will ship five thousand tons of used clothing to these stricken people—not cast off clothing, or worn out clothing, but serviceable clothing. A certain quota has been assigned to the Newark chapter. Next week only will this opportunity be given. So bring or send your donations to the store room, formerly occupied by the Interurban restaurant on East Main street and do it early in the week. Sacrifice something for the people who have sacrificed all for us.

bill of repairs must be paid, or the new man must put up with slovenly conditions.

Such tenants do not realize that their carelessness adds to the cost of living. But the damage they do to their dwellings has to be repaired sometime. The landlord takes it out in the rent he charges the next occupant. Probably these careless people are all the time paying higher rentals, because of the injury done to their quarters by previous occupants who were equally neglectful.

When a man rents a place of another person, he should take just as scrupulous care of it as if it were his own. It is not a slight and unimportant matter. If all tenants would do this, people would put up more houses, it would be easier for good homes to be secured, and it would consequently be easier for the industries to obtain the best class of workpeople.

PROVIDING LABOR.

While the business community has supported the war in good shape, here and there one finds business men who do not realize how absolutely necessary it is to find labor for the war work. Rochester, N. Y., furnishes a splendid example of this form of practical patriotism.

Before the United States entered the war, certain Rochester plants had contracts with the British and Russian governments. This work was not wholly popular, as it took away so much labor from the other factories. When our country got into the war, the army officers went to Rochester and asked for the co-operation of the business community to help these munition plants speed up, and handle work for the United States alone.

Consequently a committee of the business men of the city was formed to see that Rochester did everything possible to make munitions. The business men were persuaded to make the agreement that no machine and no tool engaged on war work should be idle a day for lack of labor.

That pledge has been strictly kept. The entire equipment of these plants has been kept busy. Labor has been freely supplied from the other factories when it was needed. The sentiment of the business community did it. If anyone objected, he was quickly made to feel that he would simply have to fall in line or he would lose his business standing.

That is a kind of spirit that is very badly needed in some places. The quicker this war is over the better it will be for the business community. We do not want to see labor drifting around in a roving way. But when workers are needed for the war plants, everything else should give way. Any manufacturer should be willing to give up some of his help if they are needed to perform this service for the government.

WASTE IS CRIMINAL.

Economy in the consumption of all things needed by the nation for the winning of the war—the releasing of labor and materials from the pursuits of peace to the business of war—those fundamental necessities of our war program must be understood by all our people if we are to put our whole strength behind our men in France. Everything wasted now is nothing short of criminal. So far as I have been able to observe, the American people are not sufficiently aroused to the necessity of economy and of saving in this really serious time, not only in the life of America, but of the nations of the world.—Wm. G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury.

CATERING TO JAPAN.

(Ohio State Journal.)
It is now reported that Germany is catering to Japan and, if we don't watch out, it will suffice that country's sympathies for the cause of the entente. German diplomacy allows nothing to stand in its way. It will promise anything and give anything to achieve its ends. It will not be surprising if the allies have waited too long in reaching an understanding with Japan. It almost seems that Germany is grabbing everything in sight. Of course it will not make any difference how much she grabs if we achieve a great victory at the western front. Everything now depends upon that and we are accepting the test. The hope lies here, that Germany is at the height of her effort. The allies are not. America is only beginning. We are beginning to realize that this time next year will make a wonderful change in the situation. It has been hoped that Japan would be benefited by this change. It would if it turned a deaf ear to Germany.

CENSORING SOLDIERS' LETTERS.

Major General Peyton C. March, acting chief-of-staff of our army, comes back from France with some common sense views about government censorship of war news. He calls the "muzzling censorship" most lamentable. Now that high military authority favors a freer publication of army doings, a letting-up of much senseless suppression seems certain.

It will be a mighty good thing to let the soldiers write home very freely about their experiences in the trenches. There would not seem to be much to conceal. Everything they are doing will be known to the Germans long before the new could leak out through home-letters.

Meanwhile, the constant publication in the home-newspapers of letters from the soldiers, and the passing them around from hand-to-hand and family-to-family, is going to be helpful. It is going to make us all feel proud of our boys. The prouder we are of them, the better we shall support them, the readier we shall be to make the sacrifices that we need to make, and from which some of us hang back.

When a soldier writes home from his own experience of the cruelty and faithlessness of the Germans, the doubters at home will be silenced. They will realize that they must support the war or come under the German heel. Happily these doubters are now few, but we do not want any of them.

If it is proposed to examine all letters sent home, it is a stupendous task, requiring a large force of people of good intelligence. It calls for careful discrimination, for no rules can be made in advance that will tell just what should be cut out and what permitted to pass. It must be remembered that the more our people know about the war, the heartier will be the enthusiasm with which they support the national cause.

NO TIME FOR EASY OPTIMISM.

(Providence Journal.)
Those easy optimists who look forward to an early ending of the war should not what President Taft, who, of course, is well informed, told the students of the Uniontown (Pa.) High school on Thursday. "The war will last three years more," he said, "and many young men in our high schools will be in the first line trenches before the close."

With Russia in collapse, Roumania forced to sign a separate peace and the German Junkers in control at Berlin, the hope of an early peace is pure folly. We must prepare for a long war; it would be the height of unwisdom to make our plans for a prompt ending of the struggle.

No energy can be spared, no sacrifice withheld. The enemy is confident; the Kaiser, referring to the Russian breakdown, says: "The complete victory fills me with gratitude."

It is a crucial time in the development of the world conflict. The course of the war has not followed the predictions. New complications have arisen. There have been unexpected difficulties and defections on the side of the allies. To say that there are no encouraging features from our point of view would be to exaggerate the seriousness of the situation, but a man must be blind if he does not see that the American nation is face to face with the greatest crisis of its entire career.

Let us stop talking about peace. It is highly dangerous. We must pick up our thoughts and think in terms of war—unmitigated war. The Hohenzollerns and the scores of millions of human beings who follow their lead are dare responsive to their every beck and nod are waging the cruellest war in history. For us to meet this menace with half-hearted efforts and to delude ourselves with the expectation of a near approach of the end of hostilities is to invite bitter disappointment and crushing disaster.

AFTER-WAR TRADE.

(By Prof. W. H. Johnson.)
Some people are objecting to the suggestion that Americans should discriminate against German trade after the war, basing their objection on the ground that such discrimination would be a policy of hatred, and hence wrong.

I wish such objectors could realize to the full the implication of such facts as Miss Morgan presented, verbally and pictorially, to the magnificent audience which greeted her at Memorial Hall, Columbus, applauding her not because she is the daughter of one of the most successful business men of the age, but because she is unselfishly devoting her time and strength and money to repairing the devastation which Prussian brutality has wrought in France.

Now what is the relation of all this to the question whether or not we shall resume our former place as lavish purchasers of German products, when the war is over? It is just this: The profits of our purchases, as well as the pain to be made from working up the raw materials which we export, will go to increase the wealth and power of that nation with whom we trade. Now the Belgians and French can readily supply many of our wants, just as easily as the Germans. Under the circumstances, is there any question where moral duty lies, as between bestowing our commercial favors upon the French and Belgians and thus helping to repair the devastation which Miss Morgan so vividly pictured, or giving these favors to the very nation that wantonly wrought all this devastation? We need not refrain from trading with Germany because of hatred; but our moral judgment will be very badly awry, when the war is over, if we do not feel an overwhelming compulsion of love and compassion to give that trade to the oppressed who will be terribly needy.

And our government is morally as well as strategically right in announcing the policy of liquidating once the vast German business holdings in this country and putting the proceeds of their sale into our liberty bonds, to be working thus for the American cause until the war is over, and the final treaty of peace determines what is to be done with the German capital thus involved. And the president is right, too, in asking from congress authority to purchase for the government one great part of the German steamships—the terminals of the great German steamship lines of our American harbors. Those properties and the men in charge of them, were criminally used against the United States from the very outbreak of the war. We will have no more Hohenzollern fortresses on American soil.

I am by temperament and conviction a free trader, but until Germany has been thoroughly denuded of the brigand gang that has made her business agencies in foreign lands the centers of political intrigue and crime, and her embassies and consuls the distributors of bribe money and even of poison and dynamite; until the face of the average German in Germany shall have learned to blush at this rottenness and his tongue shall have found the will and courage to denounce it, until a man guilty of such criminality as Bernstorff shall go home to Berlin to meet just punishment and not to receive immediate appointment to some other diplomatic post; until Germany shall willingly submit herself to this moral bath and fumigation, I say, German trade will knock at America's doors only to find a moral quarantine as hard to pass as the naval blockade before which it has lain prostrate for now nearly four years.

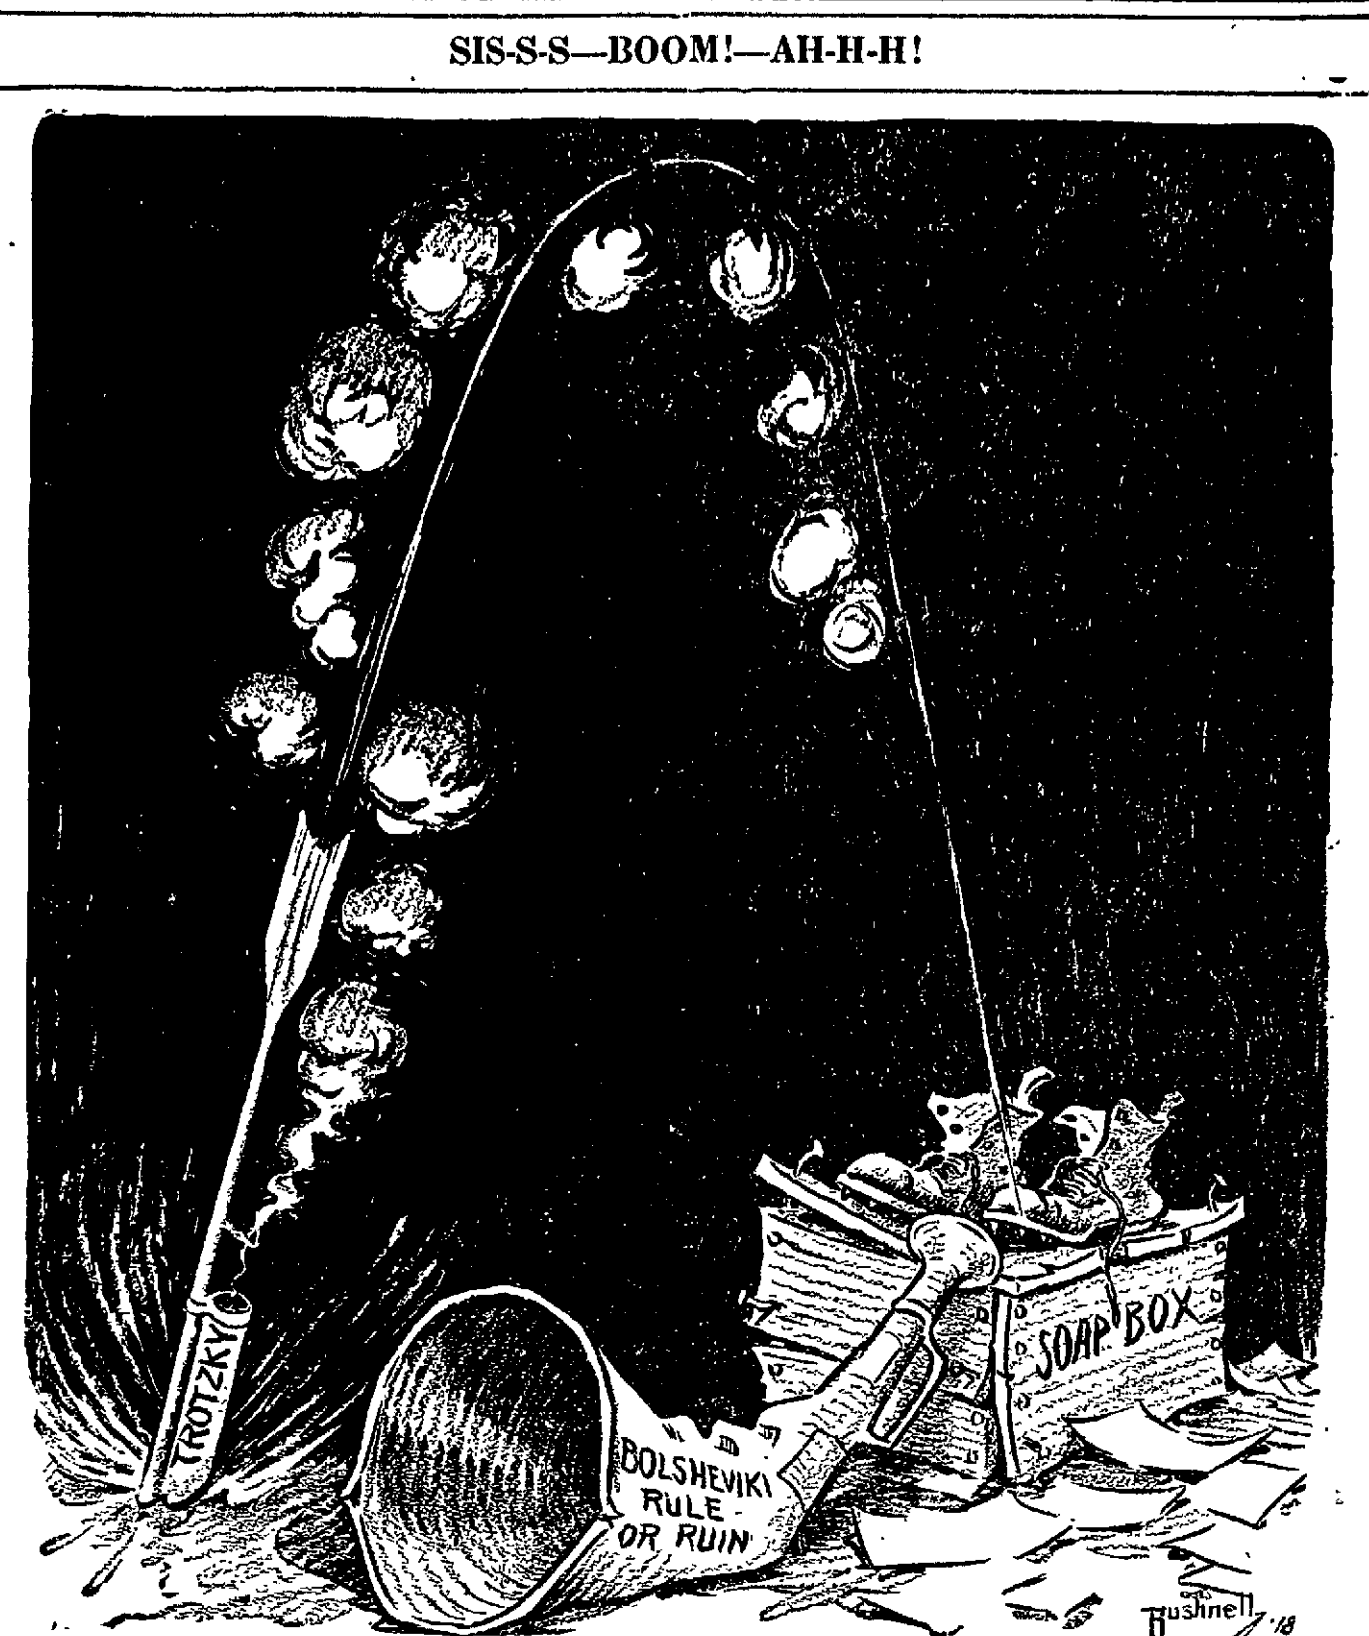

Is there even at this late day any reader of this paper who thinks that the language I have used is over-strong? If so, let him point out any case of supposed exaggeration in any charge which I have here made or implied, and I will undertake to show that at every point my language has not overstated, but understated, the hideous facts. The real danger is not that we shall unduly hate the Germans. It is rather that we shall lack the moral insight and persistence to hate as we ought the crimes which the present rulers of Germany have committed.

PEACE WITH ROUMANIA.

(Springfield Republican.)
Further resistance was under the circumstances impossible for Roumania, not because it lacked an army, but because it had no longer support or even a base of operations. Since the defeat of 1916, in which a great part of its territory was lost, it has depended upon Russia for support and supplies and in co-operation with Russia its army could have continued to give valuable service, like the Belgian army under like conditions. When the Ukraine on one side made peace and on the other the Bolsheviks in Bessarabia made civil war, the ground was cut from Roumania's position, and the treaty of peace now reluctantly signed is the inevitable consequence.

It may be that the treaty contains secret terms, but the published parts show how heavy a blow has been struck at the allies and at Roumania, which if this treaty is allowed to stand sinks at once to the position of one of Germany's humblest vassals. The whole of the Dobruja, that is, the territory between the lower reaches of the Danube and the Black Sea, is ceded to the central powers, which, of course, will turn them over under prescribed conditions to their superior vassal, Bulgaria. Hungary claims enough Roumanian territory in the west to insure its grip on the Carpathian passes, and what is left is to be restored to Roumania, but with "economic" promises corresponding to the situation. These mean for Roumania economic as well as political servitude to the central powers, which thus control not only its oil fields and rich grain lands, but also achieve the "all-German" Danube which is one of the chief prizes for which the war on the German side has been fought.

The corollary is the conversion of the Black Sea into a German lake and the seizure of Russian nominally in behalf of Turkey, of the regions in the Caucasus, rich in oil and in valuable minerals which lie on the eastern shore of the Black Sea. Not less pointedly is the course of German empire shown in the requirement of the treaty that Roumania "support with all its strength the transport of troops of the central powers through Moldavia and Bessarabia to Odessa." Plainly the Ukraine is to be extended to the east to cut off Russia from the Black Sea on that side, and we may assume that the central powers, with control of the Black Sea, will also seek control of Russia's richest granary, the prairie lands on the eastern and northeastern shores north of the Caucasus. The demands made on Roumania give a measure of the disaster which the Bolshevik leaders brought upon their country, and a clew, if anybody still needs one, to the vast design of a Mittel-Europa to dominate both Europe and Asia.

Not less pointedly is the course of German empire shown in the requirement of the treaty that Roumania "support with all its strength the transport of troops of the central powers through Moldavia and Bessarabia to Odessa." Plainly the Ukraine is to be extended to the east to cut off Russia from the Black Sea on that side, and we may assume that the central powers, with control of the Black Sea, will also seek control of Russia's richest granary, the prairie lands on the eastern and northeastern shores north of the Caucasus. ## Our Boys and Girls

It can never be insisted upon too strongly that children be given only light suppers and that the digestion should have its hardest work to do during the day, before evening and bedtime comes. Bread and milk makes the best supper and a child should eat all he wishes of this light and nourishing food.

If care is taken in this direction, sleep will be sound and rest will be refreshing. There is no more perfect food combination for a child's supper than bread and milk, although in many homes this fact seems to be entirely forgotten. The dish is easily prepared, it contains all the elements of perfect food and it deserves a permanent place in the dietary of every child, provided the milk is pure and the bread wholesome.

The Sick

Ed Williams, of the firm of Williams & Eilsh, tailors, who has been confined to his home in West Locust street for the past week with an acute attack of the grip, is slowly recovering.

Mrs. J. W. Barker, who has been seriously ill at her home in West Locust street, is improving slowly. The Bazler & Bowers ambulance removed Mrs. B. B. Older from Dr. U. K. Essington's office to the City Hospital Friday afternoon.

Afflictions are never agreeable. Love being blind, it's no wonder so many people marry for money.

The woman who tells a secret to her friends must have wonderful confidence in her friends' friends.

You never can tell. It is sometimes easier to win a man's sympathy than to coax him into a poker game.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

BY MRS. MARY PROCTOR WILSON.

Send concise reports of your activities to the director of the press, Mrs. Mary Proctor Wilson, Lebanon.

Help the government! Help its soldiers! Help yourself! Make a garden of your back yard. Turn vacant lots into vegetable patches. The world needs food and needs it more and more. The government appeals to the farmer to raise grain—it appeals to you to raise your own vegetables—earn your star in service. Toledo is in the lead in the plan. They have a war grain commission for Lucas county. They have gardens plowed for $1, help to secure plants and seed, in getting fertilized in making gardens a success. An example worth imitating.

More Books Needed.
More books—hundreds of thousands of them—are needed for the war service libraries maintained by the American Library Association at cantonments, training camps, posts, forts, naval stations, on vessels, and overseas.

Our Men Must Have These Books.
They want them for their leisure hours—for recreation and for study. Experience has proved that they are eager to read, and books must be provided. Half a million books are still required to meet the actual needs of men in the 34 large camps. Another half million are needed immediately for the military forts, posts and small camps; for the naval stations and vessels; for the marine corps training stations and barracks. And for the men on transports and overseas there is need for an almost unlimited supply. Will you help?

What Has Been Done.
In the big camps library buildings have been erected by the American Library Association in 34 of the large camps. Each building accommodates from 10,000 to 15,000 volumes and from 175 to 250 readers. In every camp from eight to 20 branch libraries are maintained in Y. M. C. A., K. of C. and W. V. C. A. buildings, and in hospital reading rooms; and each branch needs from 500 to 1,500 of the A. L. A. books. Library deposit stations containing 50 to 100 books each are being established in barracks and mess shacks. There will be a hundred or more of them in some cases. Men overseas are being supplied from dispatch offices established at Atlantic ports, and by the purchase of books in Europe. A librarian has been sent to France to supervise the distribution, and to make certain that every organization which serves our troops is supplied with the books it needs.

Library for Soldiers.
The library war service planned by the American Library Association is now in successful operation in all the camps and cantonments of the United States. This service has been very popular with our soldiers and that the demand for books far exceeds the number at this time available through purchase or otherwise. It is estimated that two million additional books will be needed for this service. A book campaign has been announced for the week commencing March 18 and the interest of the women's clubs throughout Ohio in this campaign is solicited. In communities where there is an active public library, the clubs could co-operate with it. Where there is not such a library they could render great service in taking up the work themselves.

Saving Babies a War Task.
Saving babies is one of the big war tasks undertaken by the women's committee of the Ohio defense council. One hundred Ohio women at the statehouse in Columbus recently in an outline laid before them by Dr. Frances M. Hollingshead, director of the child welfare division of the state health department.

Ohio's quota of babies to be saved is 4510. The number for the nation is 400,000. "Children's year" is a national movement, beginning April 6 and continuing 12 months. Each county has been given a quota of babies to be saved. In Hamilton county 1218 children died last year. The number to be saved is 355 in the county, 310 in Cincinnati. The methods to be pursued are education of mothers through literature and public health nurses, medical care, furnishing of milk to needy families, furnishing ice during hot weather and so on.

Youngstown Club Women Doing.
The club season in Youngstown which is rapidly drawing to a close, has been of unusual interest notwithstanding the fact that club women have had very many new duties thrust upon them this year through Red Cross work and other obligations engendered by the war.

The Monday Musical club has presented one of the best programs in its history and is now announcing the coming, early next season, of Jascha Heifetz, the Russian violinist, under the auspices of the club. Greta Topadie, the famous Swedish singer, will sing before the patrons of this organization in the auditorium of the South High school building, March 18.

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.)

Granville, March 16.—The New York Philharmonic Orchestra has arrived in Granville, and by the time the paper appears the afternoon concert will be in full swing. There will be seventy-five men in the orchestra, over one hundred in the chorus and five soloists in the performance of "Tannhauser." The symphony concert will begin at 8 o'clock this evening. The service, flag which hangs from the choir loft, displaying 17 stars, is the cherished emblem of this loyal American organization. Accommodations may yet be secured by consulting W. P. Ullman, phone 8751.

Whether one loves music or frankly confesses himself a Philistine, he must concede the thrill and fascination attending the performance of a symphony program by an orchestra like the New York Philharmonic. Indeed it is like existing in this country. There is keen delight in witnessing as well as in listening to the work of this great musical body, so perfectly co-ordinated and so exquisitely balanced in all its parts that the merest breath of tone may announce the theme with as much authority as the loudest trumpet. Seventy-five men with as many musical instruments occupy all the visible space in the "concertment platform," and there is a pleasing stir of anticipation in the mere sight of them.

Mrs. J. C. Campbell of Columbus and Mrs. A. L. Ralston of Grove City, motored to Granville yesterday to attend the funeral of Professor Colwell.

Mrs. S. W. Hartwell of Providence, R. I., and Mrs. Anna M. Colwell of Washington, D. C., were in Granville Friday to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law, Dr. R. S. Colwell.

To Whiten the Skin.

If your skin is in need of whiteness and softening, the best remedy is the homely cucumber in your kitchen garden as they have been known as splendid beautifiers for a long time. Be sure, therefore, to plant them in your kitchen garden this spring. There are several ways of using this friendly vegetable, the simplest of which is to pare it, cut it in thick slices, and rub it upon the face without further preparation. The juice is left on overnight and washed off with warm—not hot—water in the morning.

The best way to prepare a cucumber beauty lotion is to mash a cucumber into a pulp, place the pulp in half a pint of milk and set the whole upon the stove to come to a slow boil. When it has come to a three-minute boil, the lotion is removed and strained through a clean cheese-cloth or a very fine strainer.

The result is a cucumber cream which is delightful to use when perfumed with rose-water, essence of violet or lavender. This too, is applied before retiring and washed off in the morning. It is an excellent whitener and is recommended for removing the yellow line around the neck, which often appears.

You should also plant tomatoes for when your fingers are stained from the paring and cooking of vegetables, a piece of tomato rubbed upon them will whiten them nicely. Tomato juice, allowed to stay on the hands for some time and then washed off with soap and water, will give a good effect. To whiten the chin, use the common white potato. Rub the potato and rub it upon the chin or bind slices of it about the chin for a couple of hours daily. The potato is then removed and the skin washed with a mild soap and warm water, after which a good cream is rubbed in.

There is really no excuse for a woman being unbecomingly even if she has not the money with which to purchase expensive cosmetics.

Doubling the Farmer's Wheat Dollar

By Charles W. Holman
(In the Country Gentleman)

DOUBLING the farmer's share of the wheat dollar is one of the war-time jobs Uncle Sam has done since food control became possible. After five months of grappling with the problem, Uncle Sam is now translating into the pockets of both producers and consumers benefits derived by the Nation. He has shut off speculation, produced a free market and movement of all grades of wheat, cut expenses and induced a normal flow of wheat in natural directions, and effected a thousand other economies.

The Food Administration Grain Corporation, which supervises the sale, or itself buys every bushel of wheat produced in the Nation in its progress from country elevator to foreign buyers or domestic consumers, marks a new step toward national efficiency. How in four short months it has been done is told in the following episodes wherein two bushels of wheat traveled to market.

One fine afternoon, Col. Bill Jenkins, who farms somewhere in Missouri, loaded his wheat into a wagon and drove along the black road that led across the prairie to town. When he reached the co-operative elevator of which he was a stockholder, he pulled up on the scales, checked his gross weights carefully, and began to unload. The manager came out and asked:

"When you want to sell this wheat?" "I dunno," he answered. "One time's about as good as another—these days. 'T won't weigh any more later," he added, with a dry smile.

"Wheat shrinks a lot," admitted the manager. "I hear the Government wants as much wheat as it can get just now—understand the Allies do eat a terrible lot of it since the war."

"What's wheat to-day?" asked Col. Jenkins, getting interested.

"Well, let me see," parleyed the manager. "I guess this wheat'd be a good No. 2 under the new grades."

"Grades? What about grades? That Food Administration seems to mix into mighty heavy everything from rabbits to axle grease."

"Hold on, Colonel," said the elevator man, good-naturedly. "The Food Administration is not to blame. Congress passed the act and told the Department of Agriculture to fix the grades. They became effective last July. I sent out a letter on it."

"Well, I guess you better sell for the best you can," said the farmer. "I am needed at home." And he drove away.

A New Order in the Grain World.

CONVERSATIONS of this kind might have taken place in almost every town in the great grain belt of the Nation after August 10, for revolution in grain marketing was taking place. Uncle Sam had started on this remarkable experiment; he was going to see whether wheat could be marketed minus take-offs to the speculators. This necessitated complete control by the Government of storage facilities, transportation and distributive agencies, and the marketing machinery for wheat and rye.

Everybody was troubled; most of all, the officials of the Food Administration Grain Corporation who had undertaken, without salary, and at the sacrifice of their personal connection with the grain trade, to whip into shape the forces that would drive forward the big business machine for marketing American wheat. A single control; and a $50,000,000 nonprofit-making corporation to do the work.

This work is a necessary arm of the Food Administration, allowing the Government to do business quickly and without red tape. Its stock is held in trust by the President of the United States. For the time of the war it will supervise the rate or purchase of the part commercially available of the 600,000,000 bushels of wheat and the 500,000,000 surplus of rye grown in America in 1917. Its job is to find a market for every bushel, irrespective of class and grade. Under its patronage, wheat screenings are moving just as easily as No. 1 Northern. It must also work out satisfactorily the local prices for wheat at each of almost 20,000 country elevator points, adjust thousands of complaints, organize the gathering and analysis of data, inspect concerns reported as dealing unfairly, solve vexatious disagreements among the trade, and deal effectively with the allies' purchasing agent and the neutrals who may desire to purchase.

In the early days, following the determination of prices for 1917 wheat by the President's Fair Price Commission, confusion existed in every part of the wheat-producing regions. This was intensified by the inauguration of the new grain grades, as promulgated by the Department of Agriculture, which took place about the same time, and led to diverse complaints and a feeling among farmers that the Grain Corporation of the Food Administration was responsible for both the price as determined and stricter observance of grain grades. But the corporation was responsible for neither act. It is purely an administrative arm of the Government formed to buy grain or supervise its sale at the prices determined by the commission, and it must do its work on the basis of the new grades. But to return to our farmer and his expectations of price.

Introducing Two Bushels of Wheat.

Lying side by side in his wagon had been 2 bushels of wheat that fate had marked for strangely different ends. They were very much alike, those bushels of wheat, and to look at them you would not have suspected the strange and wonderful adventures in store for them. Yet one was destined to travel abroad for consumption in France; the other to find its way into Georgia, where it was milled and its flour finally reached a New York baker on the East Side. But in the sum of the travels made by the two, as we shall follow them, will be unfolded the international panorama of wheat marketing in time of war.

Finding a Price at a Country Point.

High war costs of production gave our Missouri farmer much concern as to his returns and accounted for his depression over the prospects of his wheat "grading down," for that meant a reduction of 3 cents per bushel under the No. 1 grade. But it graded No. 2.

The elevator would also deduct an additional 5 cents a bushel to cover the fixed charge made in this locality for handling and selling. The 5-cent charge included the commission of 1 cent per bushel customary in 1917 among commission men for selling the wheat to domestic millers or foreign buyers.

The elevator man was none too sure as to how to get at the price which this wheat should bring. He knew considerably more about human nature than freight rates and decided to "check up" the problem to the nearest zone agent of the Grain Corporation. So he wrote a letter to the representative stationed at St. Louis. That letter was referred to the traffic expert in the New York office, who transmitted the following rule for determining the price of wheat at any country point:

There is only one price for wheat at a country point. That price is always to be arrived at by taking as a basis the price at the most advantageous primary market where we have fixed a price and deducting the freight to that market and a fair handling profit. That is the price to be paid for wheat at any station, regardless of the point to which it may be shipped.

Working out the price which should be paid for wheat at your station is a fine occupation for an off day. If you cannot find the answer, write to the Food Administration Grain Corporation in New York City and its traffic expert will give you aid.

Finding the Price of No. 2 Wheat at Sikeston.

AKED in actual example: An elevator man in Sikeston, Mo., wanted to know what price No. 2 wheat should bring at his station when No. 1 wheat at New York City was $2.28 per bushel. Here is how he went about it:

The freight rate from Sikeston to New York being 16.98 cents per bushel, he deducted that from $2.28 per bushel and found the price at Sikeston to be $2.1102. From this he deducted 1 per cent per bushel for the commission firm's charges, which put the net price of No. 2 wheat at $2.1002.

He next compared this price with what he could get if he sold at St. Louis, his nearest primary market. At St. Louis the basic price is $2.18 per bushel, and the freight rate from Sikeston to St. Louis 6 cents per bushel. This would make the Sikeston price $2.12, less 1 cent per bushel for selling charges, or $2.11 net. The St. Louis price would therefore govern, being advantageous to the Sikeston seller.

If our imaginary 2 bushels of wheat had started from Sikeston, since it was a No. 2 grade, we must deduct 3 cents per bushel, which would bring the price to $2.0802 per bushel. As our imaginary elevator man is charging 5 cents per bushel for handling, which includes the commission fee just mentioned, we deduct an additional 4 cents to arrive at the price the farmer received. This price would be $2.0402 at the elevator. Some of that 4 cents will return to our farmer if the elevator prospers; for it is owned co-operatively.

When Farmer and Elevator Man Disagree.

Had this elevator been owned by private firm or person, or had it been a "line" plant, Col. Jenkins would not have been so bland and trustful. He might have refused to sell at all and arranged to store his wheat or he might have taken it over to a competitive concern which offered a higher price; for the Food Administration has not yet attempted to regulate the prices paid farmers for wheat at country points. It does, however, offer to sell for any farmer or farmers' organization wheat offered at terminal points, but makes a commission charge of 1 per cent for its services.

WILLARD AND FULTON TO SIGN ARTICLES FOR FIGHT APRIL 1

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Kansas City, Mo., March 16.—Signing of articles, selection of the place, agreement on the length of the contest and naming of officials remained today to be completed for the fourth of July fight between Jess Willard, champion, and Fred Fulton of Rochester, Minn., for the heavyweight title. After two days of negotiation Mike Collins, manager for Fulton, and Colonel J. Miller of Bliss, Okla., who has a contract with Willard for his services July 4, agreed that the principals should meet April 1 to sign final articles.

Under the agreement reached between Collins and Miller, Fulton is guaranteed $20,000 for the fight, win, lose, or draw, and Willard will cover a side bet of $5,000. Colonel Miller would not say what Willard's share will be.

The length of the mill will depend upon the limit placed by the laws in the state which is selected for the scene of the contest. Miller said, declaring Willard is willing to fight to a finish. Willard has not committed himself to a place for holding the fight but this may be decided at the time of the meeting, April 1, it was said.

The fight will not be permitted in Oklahoma according to S. B. Freeling, attorney general of the state, who made this announcement in answer to rumors that Colonel Miller was planning to stage the bout on his ranch.

GAME RESULTS IN A TIE SCORE

The game between the local "Y" team and the High school team last night was one of the most exciting played on the local floor this season. At the end of the game the score was thought to be 35 to 32 but this morning when the score book was consulted, it was found that both teams had made the same number of points and the game will have to remain a tie, 35 to 35.

The Senior-Faculty game proved to be a walk-away for the Seniors, but it furnished a great amount of amusement for the crowd. The members of the Faculty team showed by the way in which they handled the ball that they were stars at one time but it was that old story of "Age Against Youth" and the game ended 12 to 2 in favor of the Seniors.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, March 16.—Except for Canadian bonds, which began weakly, stocks as a whole were perceptibly strengthened at the outset of today's trading by the 15 per cent rate increase granted to eastern loans.

Liberty bonds were steady. The intermittent strength of today's beef stock market session was chiefly due to the favorable sentiment created by the freight rate increase. Eastern shares, especially coalers, featured the morning's trading, making a new high quotation for the car. Canadian Pacific was under renewed pressure, however, adding 1-2 points to yesterday's close.

Changes among industrials and specialties were confusing with a mixture of gains and losses. The leading regular sales approximately 175,000 shares. Liberty 3-1-2's sold at 97.40 to 97.41; first four at 96.10 to 96.16 and second at 95.98 to 96.00.

Chicago, March 16.—Prospects that lower grades would be acceptable on orders for contracts for delivery had a bearish effect today on corn. Liberal receipts and fine weather tended likewise to depress values. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1-8 off to a like advance with March 1-1½ and May 1-2½ to 1-2½ were followed by a moderate sag all around.

Oats declined to the lowest prices for nearly a month. After opening 3½ to 3½ off, with May 3½ to 3½, the market underwrote a decided setback before beginning to rally.

Announcement of a liberal gain in warehouse stocks here weakened prospects. Higher prices on hogs were ignored.

New York, March 16.—Ralls were the foremost features of this week's moderate stock market, being sentimentally influenced by the adoption of the government definite control of transportation.

Standard industrials, notably U. S. Steel, were under pressure, and the market underwent an adjustment of the existing price schedules by the war board.

Call money was more abundant and banks bought freely of commercial paper, mostly at six per cent, but time funds for speculative purposes continued very scarce. The feature to foreign exchange was the sharp recovery in bids, due to stabilizing methods adopted by the Italian government.

big centers appeared to be accumulating has done a good deal this week to reduce the value of the cereal. Compared with a week ago, prices this morning were down 1-8c to 1-3-8c. Oats showed a net decline of 1-2 to 3-16 and a provision of 2½ to 4c.

Oats gave way chiefly on account of the weakness of the corn. Resides, however, there were reports current of excellent progress in seeding operations.

Provisions ranged lower mainly because of the downward swing of coarse grain.

MILITARY FUNERAL FOR GRANDSON OF NEWARK COUPLE

A military funeral will be held at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Sinks in Dayton, tomorrow afternoon for their son, Captain George Dewey Sinks, who died at Norfolk, Va., March 10.

Captain Sinks is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Andregg of 22 Shields street, this city, and visited their home shortly after the Christmas holidays. He was but nineteen years old and enlisted in the U. S. Navy as a musician. He was made captain, and was considered one of the most brilliant musicians.

Captain Sinks had been assigned to sea duty, but after leaving port the ship put back for repairs and while at dock he was given shore leave. He was taking part in a game of baseball, when he was struck over the heart by a ball and died without regaining consciousness.

His father, K. L. Sinks, is postmaster of the East Dayton branch office.

THE LODGES

K. OF P.

Uniform Rank K. of P.

Licking Company, No. 121, assembled in regular session last Wednesday evening with a fair attendance of the sir knights. One application for membership was received and one application balloted on and elected. Monday evening, March 18, will be rehearsal, and the refreshment committee has promised a surprise, so come out and see what they have.

The uniform rank can do a wonderful lot of good during the war times with all local military organizations called to federal services. The companies can become the home constabulary, ready at all times to offer their services to local authorities or to the state for home-guard duty.

Roland Lodge.

The Esquire rank was conferred upon three Pages last Tuesday evening. The sick brothers are nearly all getting better. With the coming of good weather the sick list will be materially decreased. Other business matters were taken up and disposed of in a satisfactory manner. Next Tuesday evening the Page rank will be conferred for us by the famous team of Newark Lodge, No. 13. This is an event worthy of more than passing interest, and every member of this lodge who possibly can do so is urged to be present and give the visitors a cordial greeting. The work put on by this team is said by those who have seen it to be far ahead of anything before attempted in these parts and is worth going miles to see. Every Knight in the city is cordially invited. The refreshment committee will serve a "Hooverized" lunch.

Newark Lodge.

The last regular meeting of Newark lodge held last Tuesday evening was well attended. Six new applications for membership were received and referred to the proper committees. One application was balloted on and elected. Next Tuesday evening the Page Rank team will confer the Page Rank for Roland lodge in dramatic form.

At the close of the lodge the following program was carried out: Song, Frank Strear; Financing the War, George Wolfe; Newark's War Chest, K. I. Dickerson; Expeditionary Forces in France, H. C. Ashcraft. The subjects were well handled and were instructive and inspiring. Bro. Frank Strear was at his best and rendered several appropriate songs during the program.

Pythian Knighthood is a noble institution and its members can uphold its principles without a blush of shame. It represents the highest type of manhood of our country—the manhood that counts when the critical moment arises. Yet there are times when we lose sight of the important issues of the hour in the seeming security that surrounds us. We should ever have on our armour of watchfulness and be prepared to meet every crisis. It has been said that our earnest desires for the nobler attributes of life gives us that peace and contentment so dear to mortals and in the enjoyment of these virtues we forget the material things transpiring within our midst. As true Knights we must labor unceasingly for the upbuilding of our order. It is true of our own individual environment, yet if we do good work the reward is the same—a satisfied conscience.

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS.

Tent No. 25, Daughters of Veterans, met in regular session Tuesday night, with the president, Mrs. Laura Kunkler presiding. We had with us six visiting sisters from Granville Tent, No. 54, and six comrades, and a very good attendance of our own membership.

Mrs. Margaret Long was initiated into the Tent and given a hearty welcome. Three candidates were balloted on, and two applications for membership were received.

Sister McManus of Elmwood avenue was reported sick, and Comrade Steele reported convalescing.

Mrs. Fredericka Brown, chairman of our "Service Star" auxiliary of the Red Cross, gave an interesting report of the Red Cross by the Tent. A number of "property bags" were donated also. Let there be a good attendance each Friday afternoon to see Mrs. Sheppard, president of the Granville Tent, other visiting sisters, and the comrades, which were very much enjoyed.

The next meeting will occur March 26, when a class of five will be initiated. The president desires a good attendance of members.

L. O. O. F.

Canton Olive.

Canton Olive, No. 90, had a fair attendance at their meeting last Wednesday evening, but we trust there will be a larger attendance Wednesday, March 27th, when we will help the auxiliary in their degree work. All members of this degree staff are requested to meet in the temple at 7:30 o'clock next Wednesday evening, March 20th.

Ladies Auxiliary Olive No. 10 is requested to meet with members of Licking Rebekah lodge at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Spees in Park avenue next Tuesday, March 19th to spend the day sewing for the Red Cross. Each lady will bring her own lunch.

On next Wednesday, March 20th, the entire degree staff of the Auxiliary will meet in the temple at 7:30 o'clock to rehearse the degree work which will be conferred on the following Wednesday.

Olive Branch Lodge.

At the regular meeting of Olive Branch lodge last Tuesday evening, one applicant was elected to receive the Initiatory degree. There was a good attendance and a general good time. Bro. Richards was present and gave a good, interesting talk. On next Tuesday evening the Initiatory degree will be conferred and every member of the degree staff is expected to be present without fail. Visiting brothers are always welcome.

W. C. T. U. NOTES.

The Frances Willard W. C. T. U. met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alice Hoop, 69 Linden avenue. The devotional half hour was in charge of Mrs. King. A short program was given. A poem, entitled, "Don't give up the meetings," was read by Mrs. Simpson. "War Relief Work" was the subject of a paper read by Mrs. Appley. A series of questions and answers were given by the members. Mrs. Lawyer, the corresponding secretary, read a letter from Fuel Administrator Garfield which was an answer to an inquiry sent him concerning war prohibition. Before the meeting adjourned a decision was made to change the day of the regular meetings from Wednesday to Tuesday, so that it would not interfere with the Red Cross work.

W. R. C.

The W. R. C. met in the G. A. R. hall, Wednesday afternoon, March 13. The lodge was called to order by the president, Ella McDermott, at 2 p. m. The W. R. C. are doing a wonderful work for our soldier boys. The ladies are requested to meet next Thursday and sew all day. Bring your lunch with you. If any of you cannot sew come and bring tape and thread. Do not forget that on next Tuesday evening, March 19, the W. R. C. will give a social in the G. A. R. hall. The public is invited. Everybody come and have a good time. While our boys are fighting for us we must do what we can here, so everybody come to the social.

We had with us Comrade Hunt, who gave us a short address, which was enjoyed by all present. Come again. You are always welcome. Do not forget the social next Tuesday evening. As there was no further business the lodge closed to meet again March 27.

Home Garden Clubs Stir Interest; Give Aid to Amateurs

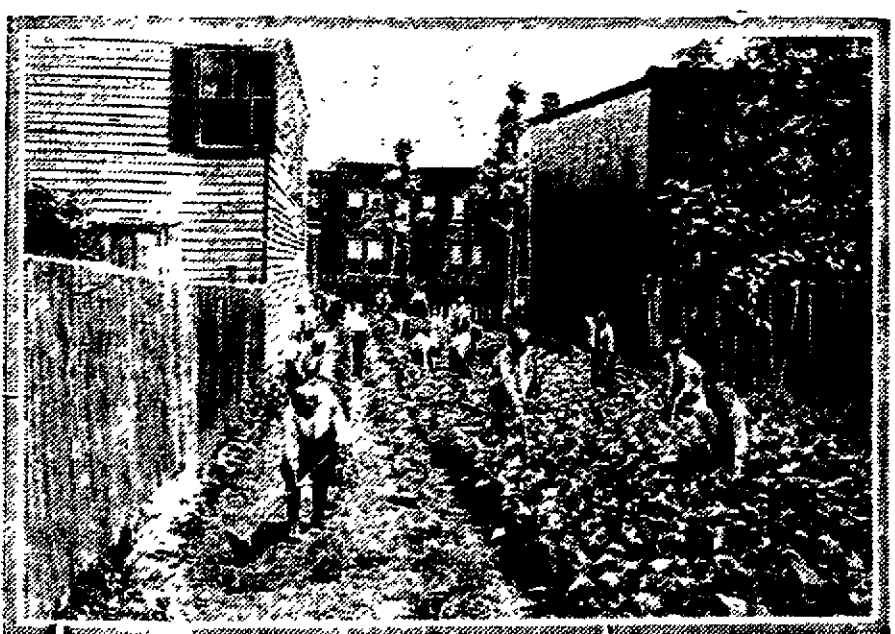

Gardening Makes Appetite. The more blisters you raise in cultivating the less water your plants will need. Weeds waste moisture and plant food. And they're not even pretty. Have you filed your hoses? Some sticks to mark the rows?

Gardeners of a neighborhood, whether beginners or experienced, should find profit as well as pleasure in the formation of a local garden club, in the opinion of specialists of the United States Department of agriculture. The club members may unite to do the heavy work in breaking up a neighbor's garden; and should emergency arise, may help in preventing damage by storm or flood or insect visitation. If insect attacks can not be met by simple methods, the gardening club may buy a sprayer for the use of all its members. Costly garden tools needed only occasionally also may be obtained in this manner without hardship to the individual gardener.

Interest Boys and Girls.

An important feature of the work can be the organization of boys' and girls' garden clubs, separate from the adults'. In banding together the Boys Organized Like These (In Washington, D. C.) Work Wonders In Vacant Lots and Neighborhood Gardens.

Agriculture. The meetings can be conducted on the basis of experience meetings to the mutual advantage of all. Beginners can take advantage of the experience of successful gardeners, and thus obtain much valuable advice they may not find in books or papers on gardening. In the present emergency, it is pointed out, it is not only a privilege but a duty to pass on the results of garden experience may save another from error or increase his chances of success.

May Buy Together.

Another use of the neighborhood young folks to help in the campaign for more food, assistance may be obtained from the States Relations Service of the United States Department of Agriculture in co-operation with the State agricultural colleges. It is regarded as important that the boys and girls be interested for many of the light tasks of gardening can be performed by them and they will do them willingly if given a partnership in the undertaking. Exhibits of garden products and other outgrowths of the club ideas may suggest themselves to the club organizer.

located indefinitely in Cincinnati, where he is in the services of the

After Long Delay.
The large plate glass of the J.
Gleichenau window was put in place yesterday afternoon; the window having been broken last September when a horse belonging to Fountain Johnson walked through it. Several weeks later a new glass was received and upon opening the same it was found that it had been broken in transit. The long delay has caused Mr. Gleichenau quite an inconvenience.

Called to Florida.

Fill Out Cards.
The fuel administrator wishes to further impress upon the coal consumers of the city and county that the cards which have been mailed to them do not constitute an order when filled out and returned to the office. These cards are only to give the local administrator an estimate of the amount of coal needed to run the city for the coming winter. All orders for coal must be placed with the dealers direct.

To Address Local Chapter.
Hon. W. J. Burke, chairman of noon. Mr. Burke is a man of wide experience both in the railway business and in civic life. At the present time he is one of the councilmen-at-large in Pittsburgh.

GREAT INTEREST IN REVIVALS AT THE 1ST PRESBYTERIAN
Just now a wonderful revival meeting that is attracting universal attention, is in progress at the First Presbyterian church, and nightly large crowds flock to the church to draw inspiration from the excellent sermons that are preached and to listen to the heavenly music rendered by the big chorus choir. The choir is led by Ralph E. Mitchell, one of the most noted evangelistic singers in the country, who, some years ago sang here when the Lyon evangelistic party visited our city.
He is a most wonderful singer and his solos during the meetings are of a nature to arouse the most adamant. Wednesday evening, the opening night, Rev. Mr. Hazlett, pastor of the church, preached a most forceful and inspiring sermon.
Thursday and Friday evenings, Rev.
James H. Lawther of Bellairs, preached to large congregations.
The subject of his discourse last night was "We Are Responsible for Our Brother." During the course of his sermon he brought out the fact that we are all brothers, and that if we do not try to save our neighbors and friends, we are neglecting and wronging our brothers. His sermons are particularly interesting from the fact that he has traveled extensively, especially in the Holy Land, and his talks are based on personal observations. Last evening, Mr. Mitchell paid a high tribute to the boys and girls and has planned a big day for Sunday, when he hopes to meet all the Sunday school scholars, both old and young. All the regular services at this church, Sunday, will be conducted with Mr. Mitchell in charge of the singing. The revival services will continue until Easter Sunday.

SPLENDID GIFT TO MILLERSBURG
PUBLIC SCHOOLS
The Millersburg board of education is in receipt of a check for $1000 from the Hon. J. J. Sullivan of Cleveland, to be used in equipping an agricultural laboratory and workshop, enabling Millersburg and Holmes county to maintain a four-year course in agriculture.

Mr. Sullivan was written to by the county superintendent explaining the plan of the board of raising $1000 for this purpose among the schools of the county schools, and realizing the need of a course such as this in the schools, generously donated the entire amount.

The board of education passed a resolution accepting the gift, and the resolution provided that the laboratory be designated as the "J. J.
Sullivan Agricultural Laboratory."

POWER SUSTAINED
DOUBLE FRACTURE
IN BASKETBALL
Donald Power, one of Newark high school's foremost basketball stars, fell during the last three minutes of the game with the "Y" team last night and broke both bones of his left arm. Mr. Power was selected by Prof. Klopp as interlocutor in the annual minstrel show to be given next Thursday and Friday at the high school.

Dr. Leland Baxter reduced the fracture and this morning Mr. Power was able to be about town.

ANNUAL MEETING OF U. C. T. TODAY
The annual meeting of the two hundred and seventy-fourth Council of the United Commercial Travelers was held today in the Odd Fellows hall. This afternoon at 2 o'clock the election of officers for the coming year was held.

This evening at 8:30 o'clock they will give a banquet at the Masonic Temple for the members and their families and at 8 o'clock a war sale will be conducted at the Odd Fellows hall.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS
With six of seventeen banks to hear from the total War Savings stamp sales for the week ending March 14, is $9,000. Last week the sales amounted to $14,418, the previous week, $28,251. The total sales to March 14 are $218,471.
Several $1,000 sales are being reported today, so that the figures for the coming week promise to be larger. The quota for this county is about $24,000 a week.

Here are additional members of the "Ohio One Thousand Dollar War Savings Society": Judge T. B. Fulton, Newark; Chas. B. Kesson, Johnstown; P. W. Jones, Newark; Dr.
William E. Holmes, Brownsville;
Capt. C. A. Cook, Brownsville; Chas.
A. Smith, Newark. The qualification for membership is the purchase of 200 War Savings Stamps, cost of which this month is $328. The government issues a red, white and blue certificate of membership. Those who have bought 200 War Savings stamps, or who will do so, are requested to notify the Licking County War Savings committee.

Meadow View school, Inez Heft, teacher, comes forward today with a report for $216 or $18 for every pupil in the school. Who can beat that?

Reed S. Johnston, principal of the Brownsville schools, came to Newark today with Capt. C. A. Cook, the well known civil war veteran, and reported that orders for War Savings stamps are rolling into the Brown-sville office so fast that Postmaster E. J. Harris has a hard time keeping enough stamps on hand. Mr. Johnston and Capt. Cook bought $1,500 worth of stamps today. Prof. Johnston has aroused great interest in War Savings among the pupils and people of Brownsville.

Supt. Howell makes the following report of stamp sales today. Mt.
Pleasant school, George Frampton, teacher, $286, or $10.50 per capita;
Perryton primary, Vera Freese,
teacher, $104; Polkstalk school, Zora Heft, 21 pupils, $136; Toboso high school, I. D. Law, principal, $122; Wilson school, 21 pupils, Darrel Wintermute, $126.50; Clay Lick school, Carl Cluggish, $126.25; Hazelwood school, $246.25.

Here is an additional list of teachers in Supt. Howell's district who have bought War Savings stamps and who will act as stamp agents in their territory: A. L. La Fever, Rocky Fork; Marie Colville, Wild
Cherry; H. H. Hoover, Willey school; Kyle Varner, Wagstaff; Alice Johnson, Freese; Marie Myers,
Brushy Fork; Gladys Bower, Stone
Pile; Ferdinand Hofaker, Maple Grove. Mr. Hofaker's name indicates Teutonic origin and in fact his grandmother still lives in Germany, but nevertheless this young man is his best to promote interest of the United States in the great war.

Those who have bought 200 War Savings stamps are requested to notify the Licking County War Savings committee (Auto 23124) in order that their certificates of membership may be mailed.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS
Editor of The Advocate—Your letter of recent date received, and I enjoyed much pleasure in reading it.
I also wish to thank you for the medal from the people of Licking county, which I will be proud to wear at all times. I will say that the medal is the medal of a token of appreciation, but it will give the boys of Licking county courage and more fighting power to know that the people back home are still with them, and are doing their bit to help us win the war. There are a great number of Licking county boys in this camp and I have come in contact with several of them while doing engineering work about camp, but at the present time our training is so intense that we do not have much time to meet our friends, but will gladly submit, later, the names of any Newark boys who have not received medals. I would like to add that I am perfectly satisfied with this camp-life, taking the opportunities of enjoying the most beautiful and healthful camp in the United States, but in spite of this we are all anxious for the time to come when our regiment will receive orders for " overseas." Thanking you again for your past favors and hoping that I will have the opportunity to thank you in person in the near future, I remain, Yours respectfully, V. P. Kniesly, Headquarters Co., 112th Engineers, Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala.

Editor of The Advocate—I received this day the bronze medal which Licking county people offer to all soldiers of dear old Licking county.
I am more than pleased with this medal because it is the only one of its kind in this camp. I have obtained permission to wear it on my shirt.
I am the only soldier in this camp from Licking county. I enlisted in the aviation corps of United States January 27, 1918. I am going to school at the aviation mechanical school of Minneapolis, Minn. We are given the best of consideration in this horrible time of war. The hardest thing we have to fight here is the "blues." I like my regards and thanks to the people of Licking county for their remembering us soldier boys, and the Newark Advocate for suggesting this remembering. Yours truly, Ralph O. Farley, St. Paul, Minn., aviation, station squad 1.

Editor of The Advocate—A dreary day with plenty of rain and mud. A dreary place in such weather, but beautiful when fair weather prevails.
I am in the chemical service of the national army having enlisted the fourth of this month. So far I enjoy the work and these laboratories are said to be the largest in the world.

Yesterday I ran across a lad from Licking county who wore one of the medals that you presented. I envied him and hope that I can receive one.

He also gave me a few copies of the Advocate which were certainly welcome. If it is not too much trouble will you please send me one? Sincerely, Paul H. Wright, 1125 Euclid street, Washington, D. C.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS.
Not so many years ago Sunday school was considered especially for children and for adults of the female persuasion, but of late years a noticeable condition has arisen. It is the fact that men in increasing numbers are becoming interested in God's word and want to know more about it, and find that a good place to acquire this knowledge is in the adult Bible class where consecrated men as teachers are doing a splendid work. The Berean Bible class of the First M. E. church Sunday school is rapidly coming to the front as a growing class. The teacher, Rev. Robert Northey, is making the lessons so interesting and timely that the men complain that the hour from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. is not sufficient time for them. Every man in the city who is not attendant at some other Sunday school is invited to try the brand of fellowship handed out by this class. The teacher announced last Sunday that no one will be called upon individually, but all who care to are expected to voice their judgment and also be free to ask questions.

ENTERED IN THE TOURNAMENT AT CAPITAL CITY
Newark bowlers are to be represented in the headpin tournament, conducted by the Columbus Citizens, evening, and the local boys will probably bowl Friday night, March 22.
There will probably be 75 bowlers enter from this city, and they expect to charter a special car and take a number of the local fans with them.

You never can tell. It isn't always selfishness that prompts a man to keep his opinion to himself.

Bevo is a great favorite in the Army Canteens, where none but pure, soft drinks may be sold. After drill or march, you are sure to see a long line of hot and dusty-throated soldier boys making a bee-line for Bevo. They know that there lies complete satisfaction, full refreshment and pure wholesomeness.

At home or abroad—at work or play—between meals or with meals, you will appreciate what we have done for you in making this triumph in soft drinks.

You will find Bevo at inns, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, picnic grounds, baseball parks, soda fountains, dining cars, in the navy, at canteens, at mobilization camps and other places where refreshing beverages are sold.

There is only one more event in the Intermediate A contest. This will probably be the 20-yard swim. Last year's record for this event in the Intermediate A class was 14 seconds. Cecil Archer got a bad fall in the first-vault contest, Monday afternoon. He would probably have been seriously hurt, except for the fact that he fortunately landed on his feet.

A city may well dispense of many other important institutions, but this is one which should stand open through stress and prosperity alike.

The bird-house building contest is well under way; it is open to boys of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades and the high school grades.

The pool is coming back to its own this spring-time weather. When the robins sing in the early morning, and a boy's hind legs quiver to jump into the river, then winter has retired for good. The water in the pool is not clear since the water in the city mains has been kept more or less muddy by the spring rains. George Pugh is leading in the

RENGO-BELT REDUCING CORSETS

SPRING MODELS ARE READY FOR SUMMER DRESS MAKING

The new models of Rengo Belt Corsets are now on exhibition. If you are inclined to stoutness, you are invited to have a correct and comfortable size fitted to your figure in order that you may fully understand the wonderful figure moulding possibilities of these remarkable corsets. You will not need a size too small as in practically all ordinary corsets, and you will marvel at the ease and satisfaction you feel.

The figure lines will be absolutely perfect as though moulded by a fashion designer.

These are the distinguishing features of Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets—features that are felt rather than seen, for Rengo Belt Corsets look practically no different than others, except in the peculiarly scientific method by which they are tailored and gored. Here lies the Rengo Belt exclusive principle which has been pronounced hygienically correct after ninety years of test by stout and medium women. No other figures requiring reducing corsets, so Rengo Belt superiority has of necessity proven itself beyond doubt.

RENGO CORSETS AT $1.00 TO $2.00
RENGO BELT CORSETS AT $2.50 AND $3.50

$1,500,000.00 Put Behind the Proposition

This gives to Newark one of the leading manufacturing of the State of Ohio.

A limited amount of this most desirable 7 per cent cumulative, participating, convertible preferred stock is offered the citizens of Licking county, at one—$100 per share.

Those persons who held stock in the Blair Motor Truck Co. have reason to be much gratified, and those persons who are not in position to buy can be equally well treated and benefitted. The new company will now have funds sufficient to properly and successfully prosecute its business.

There is a great demand for commercial trucks and will be for many years to come. The auto-truck is an absolute commercial necessity—read the accompanying editorial from the Columbus Dispatch.

Idle money may be turned to good account for you in this enterprise, and wherever employed at less than 7 per cent, is proportionately idle. One, or more, shares may be bought by one person, while it lasts. Call upon, or telephone to—

OUR OUTGROWN RAILROADS.

We have outgrown our railroads. There is no other way to express it. All kinds of traffic has outrun railroad development, with the result today there is congestion everywhere, on all lines.

It has not been wholly due to the war. The truth is the railroads have not kept pace with the growth in other lines, and we would have had congestion even if we had not been plunged into the war.

If every single-track railroad in this country were double-tracked, if every double-tracked road were turned into a four-track affair, and if the few four-tracked roads were to add four more tracks to the system, it would just about be adequate, provided the rolling stock were also doubled.

It is getting to the point where one can not depend upon the railroads to move freight. Millions and millions of tons are waiting to be transported. Other millions of tons are being handled by motor truck.

The automobile manufacturers no longer depend upon the railroads. Automobiles are leaving the factories under their own power and trudging hundreds and even thousands of miles across the nation.
